RATES OF ADVERTISING. Newspaper propriets a generally, and especially of this sty, under the usages and regulations heretofore prevailing are called upon to perform more labor without remuneration, than any other class of community. The gratiatous publication of clarity and religious advertisement, and communications, tributes of respect, obstuaries, kn., &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, incoming the many difference, to check the abuse, by making such publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the parties more manediately interested. In this they are but following the example of the press in other cities, impelled by a sense of its intrinsic propriety, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have, therefore, united together in a mutual agreement, upon the to lowing specified terms or the publication of these as well as every sort of regular business advertising.
